

First Diagnosis Cancer Insurance

Nearly everyone has experienced or knows someone who has experienced a cancer diagnosis. The good news is cancer screening and medical technology have greatly improved in recent years. However, with more advanced technology comes higher costs. Our First Diagnosis Cancer insurance can help ease the financial burden.

HOW IT WORKS

Our First Diagnosis Cancer insurance lump-sum payment allows policyholders to choose when and where to spend the money to cover a wide-range of expenses, such as:

Medical costs

- Surgery
- Chemotherapy
- Radiation

Out-of-pocket costs

- Deductibles and copays
- Experimental medicine and treatments
- Lost income due to working less
- Mortgage or rent, utilities, groceries, and home goods
- Travel, meals, gas, parking fees, and lodging during treatment
- Caregiving or in-home care

WHO NEEDS IT

Really anyone 18-79 years old can purchase First Diagnosis Cancer insurance coverage, but some key factors stick out among potential policyholders:

- Have a family history of cancer
- Are the sole wage earner of the family
- May not have enough savings to cover expenses
- Have health insurance that doesn't cover all cancer-related expenses
- Have not been diagnosed with a cancer within the last 10 years

By the numbers

- About 40% of adult Americans will develop cancer during their lifetime.¹
- In 2019, U.S. cancer patients' out-of-pocket costs were $16.22 billion.²

3. Skin cancer is not covered in most states. In Idaho and Maine, the amount paid for skin cancer equals 1% of the policy benefit amount if you are first diagnosed as having skin cancer other than malignant melanoma. If you are later diagnosed with internal cancer or malignant melanoma, we will pay the full benefit amount less any amount already paid for skin cancer.
4. In South Carolina, a one lump sum of only $25,000 is available.
5. In Georgia, the Inflation Protection optional benefit is not available.
6. Subject to the lifetime maximum benefit provision and the limited right to change premium.
